

AACHP

Australian Association of Clinical Hypnotherapy & Psychotherapy Inc.

The AACHP was founded in 1998 following the deregulation of hypnosis in Victoria. It is a progressive national association with membership throughout Australia. The AACHP is a member association of the national peak body, the HCA (Hypnotherapy Council of Australia) and practicing members of the AACHP are eligible to join the HCA National Register.

Professional Clinical Members can offer rebates from several Private Health Insurers with whom AACHP has been approved as a health service provider under section 10 of the PHI (Accreditation) Rules (2008).
